WANTED: Non violent domestic terrorist to "Police Our Government Officials, Police Our Government Organizations and Police Our Police (POGO/POGO/POP)

Last month's front page article, "WANTED: Leaders Without Titles", stated: that leaders without titles (citizens) are required to "provide the solution to the problem of government of, by and for the corporations by occupying every government agency and holding them responsible and accountable to the will of the people".

Since 9/11/01 this government has terrorized its citizens by expanding police powers in the name of "security" and taking away their 4th amendment constitutional right (Article IV of the "Bill of Rights"):

"The right of the people to be secure in their persons ,houses, papers and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be

Occupy Protesters Had Irises Scanned By NYPD

People who refused to let cops photograph their irises after getting arrested during the Occupy Wall Street demonstrations say the NYPD held them in custody for much longer than other protesters.

The 1982 science-fiction film Blade Runner depicted a life in the early 21st century where rebels could only be identified by Secret Police Squads who used something called the Voight Kampff Machine. This was placed near the eye of a suspected rebel and analyzed the contractions and dilatations of their iris. In real life 2012, an eerily similar biometric device is being openly used by the NYPD.

Occupy protesters told The Sovereign that when they were being booked, they refused to cooperate with the controversial iris scan, which the NYPD began implementing in 2010. A cop told one protester, "It's not really optional. It'll take you longer to get out of here if you don't do it." And apparently he wasn't bluffing, as the defiant Occupy protesters weren't released from Central Booking for 36 hours.

often depicted with his right hand pointing upward. Although Pazuzu is, himself, an evil spirit, he is said to have the ability to drive away other evil spirits, thus protecting humans against plagues and other misfortunes. Pazuzu is considered to be one of the most malevolent elemental forces in the world of mythology. He is a desert scavenger, a bringer of desolation and plagues. The spread of loathsome diseases like typhoid have been blamed on his dry fiery exhalations as he wanders the wastelands. A chaos-demon who lusts after the flesh of human-kind, Pazuzu will nonetheless often exercise his power on behalf of those whom he sees as victims of injustice and slander. While legends depict Pazuzu's influence as both harmful and beneficial, depending upon one's relationship with him, his habit of destruction, in any case, has gained him a well-earned reputation for terror..

Notable Quotables

"Defiance is beautiful. The defiance of power, especially great or overwhelming power, exalts and glorifies, the rebel."

—Edward Abbey (1927-1989), American author and essayist noted for his advocacy of environmental issues, criticism of public land policies, and political views

"Perhaps it is a universal truth that the loss of liberty at home is to be charged against provisions against danger, real or pretended from abroad."

—James Madison, fourth President of the United States, in a Letter to Thomas Jefferson, 1798

"It was terribly dangerous to let your thoughts wander when you were in any public place or within range of a telescreen. The smallest thing could give you away. A nervous tic, an unconscious look of anxiety, a habit of muttering to yourself—anything that carried with it the suggestion of abnormality, of having something to hide. In any case, to wear an improper expression on your face...was itself a punishable offense. There was even a word for it in Newspeak: facecrime..."

—George Orwell, 1984, Book 1, Chapter 5

Fun Facts

Mitt Romney's Completion Backwards Principle

Mitt Romney has a strange immigration policy. It's something about arresting illegal aliens and returning them to Mexico to "wait their turn".

The Romney family has an even stranger immigration policy. The lamestream media doesn't tell you that in 1884, when the US outlawed polygamy, Mitt Romney's devout Mormon great-granddad Miles Park Romney fled to Mexico with his four wives, where he would raise 30 children. Mitt's grandfather Gaskell and father George were both born and raised there. Devout great-gramps Miles built the Mormon enclave of Colonia Jurez in Chihuahua.

The year 1912 brought revolution to Mexico. Pancho Villa was a Mexican revolutionary leader who advocated for the poor and wanted agrarian reform. He was a killer, a bandit, and supported by many as a folk hero. The Romney family saw the writing on the wall and Mitt's grandmother and father (who was a child at the time) returned to America on a train.

Curiously, however, Miles Park Romney never became a Mexican citizen, and neither did his son Gaskell or grandson George. They were also all denied Mexican citizenship because statutes on the books in Mexico denied that right to American settlers and their offspring.

In fact, Grandpa Gaskell Romney was considered by the US as something of an "illegal immigrant" at that time and eventually had to cross the US border on a long walk over barren desert land. Under a Mitt Romney presidency, old Miles Park Romney would hypothetically be deported and forced to "get on the back of the line".

In 2012, Obama's genuine long-form birth certificate still appears to be lost in the mists of time. In the future we may experience a sense of déjà vu, having once again to challenge yet another White House occupant's citizenship status.

violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the person or things to be seized."

Both the Patriot and Military Commissions Act violate this basic right. The military did not have police powers over U.S. citizens until the recent passage of the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA). Section 1031 authorizes "any president to order the military to sweep in, seize and imprison anyone anywhere (including anyplace in America) and hold them indefinitely without charging them with any crime or putting them on trial. . (Ref. "The Hightower Lowdown" February 2012, "In the Constitution, "security" means protection from our law enforcers, not by them")

Since the federal government refuses to protect its citizens, the sovereign states are beginning to overrule unconstitutional federal laws and legal decisions by refusing to allow this federal tyranny to affect their citizens Virginia is the first state to refuse to accept the NDAA. Hopefully, all sovereign states will reject the NDAA.

The time has come for citizens to apply non violent terrorism to stop corporate control and tyranny by the feds. This attack against our rights began with the 9/11 lie that Muslims planned and executed the killing of Americans 9/11/01 when, in fact this event was planned by our own government and Israel. The scientific evidence can be reviewed at www.voicesofsafety.com/pcc/911/"9/11 Truth Proclamation".

Last month's front page article asked citizens to "Think globally and act locally". I have personally put this advice into practice by sending the following letter to N. Caldwell, N.J. mayor, Joseph Alessi:

"You took an oath of office to defend and protect the U.S. Constitution.

As an activist who has proved that 9/11 was not planned or executed by Muslims I want you to protect my constitution based freedoms by passing a resolution refuting the unconstitutional National Defense Authorization Act."

I ask that all readers of the Sovereign become non violent domestic terrorists who will put fear into the hearts of all government officials, organizations and the police who are acting to destroy your constitutional rights. The time has come to fight these bastards and to stop being fearful. They are the terrorists! S

The NYPD insists the iris photographs are essentially the same as mug shots, and are eventually destroyed. Don't believe them. Biometrics is not only an identifier but, when combined with data from other sources, also an element in "total information awareness" about an individual. There is also the widespread potential for abuse when biometric data is combined with DNA profiles.

Human Resistance Please Note: Most of our current Biometric identification technology uses "living tissue" and can be fooled by something like a latex finger, a prosthetic eye, a plaster hand, or a digital audio voice recording! S

New TSA Behavior-Detection Uses Israeli Airport Security Methods

By: Shirley

In the aftermath of the false-flag event of 9/11, we were warned by Bush-Cheney to report suspicious activity. Now, ten years later, it is only that appropriate that under Obama, the phrase has been changed to "Suspicious Behavior".

As part of a new program, TSA screeners will engage passengers at over 160 airports in an effort to detect "suspicious behavior". The TSA is using methods currently deployed at Ben Gurion International Airport near Tel Aviv in Israel, where every passenger is questioned face to face at length before boarding a plane.

People need to understand that this expansion of the TSA's Screening of Passengers by Observation Techniques (or SPOT) Program resulted in the arrest 2,000 criminals, none of whom were charged with terrorism. Passengers should expect the Police State techniques to start with a few seemingly innocent questions, such as "What's the purpose of your trip?" They'll be on the lookout for "micro-expressions", which are facial expressions that occur in 1/25 of a second and which indicate attempts to conceal emotion. S
