

Civilization Engineering for Real CHANGE!

“A state without the means of some change is without the means of its conservation.”

Obama won his first term based on CHANGE. Now that he’s won again real change will only occur by having indolent citizens finally realize that they, not the president, are responsible for any meaningful change in this fascist tyranny. My proposal for holding all levels of government both accountable and responsible for their actions was written 12 years ago and can be viewed in its entirety at www.voicesofsafety.com.

I. Background

“History repeats itself” is the excuse nations have used to justify the seemingly endless cycles of war and peace. Engineers must study the past and change in order to create a new product that is better or less expensive than the one they plan to replace. This same engineering thought process must be the basis for the proposed revolution of civilization engineering; to replace what continually fails in humanity’s quest for everlasting peace without war.

The More Effective Evil Re-Elected

By: Sarah Connor,
Human Resistance Leader

When the G.O.P. establishment selected cold fish Mitt Romney and boy wonder, Paul Ryan, to take on Obama and Biden in the presidential cage match, it seemed to many they were being unwittingly used to throw the election. Then came Obama’s “October Surprise,” on September 11th, 2012 with a supposed “terrorist” attack on the US Consulate in Benghazi, Libya, which really came courtesy of the of Israel-First elements within the US military.

The prime suspect in the death of Ambassador Stevens and his three colleagues is Sufyan Bin Qumu, an obvious US double agent who spent several years in Guantanamo and who doubtless swore eternal obedience to the CIA for his freedom. Reports have since emerged of a 12-person CIA security team stationed near the US consulate in Benghazi

The Things That Dreams Are Made Of

One of the more exotic mind-control technologies is that of "dream manipulation." The projection of images during sleep is designed to influence the targeted individual's dreams. The manipulation of an individual's dreams can also program the individual to use various subconscious associations. Since people usually don't remember their dreams exact content, a neurological weapon called a "lucid dream interrogation" has proven to be a subtle way to probe someone's mind without them becoming suspicious. These types of techniques were best illustrated years ago in the science fiction film A Clockwork Orange, which used a reverse process to program and condition a target with violent thoughts using a multitude of methods. The intelligence agencies have discovered that by continuously inputting voices, noises, disturbances, images, and artificial "dreams" into a subject's brain, they've been able to override and radically alter their consciousness.

Lockheed Martin

Lockheed Martin is one of the most successful war profiteers in the history of the planet. Not only is it the largest military contractor in the world, as a Shadow government contractor, it may indeed be the New World Order company that rules the US. Lockheed Martin is responsible for spy planes, missiles and all sorts of death weapons, but it has also made vast fortunes through insider trading, falsifying accounts, and bribing officials. Lockheed Martin is also the world's largest arms exporter: Its F-117 stealth attack fighters were used as part of "shock and awe," which was unleashed on the civilian population of Iraq at the start of the ill-fated US invasion. Formed in 1995, Lockheed Martin employs well over 140,000 people in over 40 states. The company also has its own contractors that are said to work in lock-step to intimidate anyone who dares to question the reallocation of federal resources away from the current excessive level of military spending. Lockheed works for at least two dozen government agencies from the Department of Defense to the NSA (National Security Agency), and it is also heavily involved in surveillance and information processing for the CIA, the FBI, the IRS, among others. Most interestingly, Lockheed Martin is also intimately bound up in the workings of the NSA, America's largest spy outfit. It may seem a little creepy to you that the same company making ballistic missiles is also processing your taxes, accessing your fingerprints, scanning your packages, ensuring that it's easier to collect your DNA, and counting you for the census. Rest assured ... Lockheed Martin's interest in auguring into your private life via intelligence collection and surveillance has remained remarkably undiminished in the 21st Century.

II. Current World (Dis) Order

US national corporations, that formerly utilized US citizens to both produce and buy their products, have become multinational corporations that exploit low cost labor in third world nations in order to maintain a profitable bottom line for their worldwide shareholders. These multinational corporations are whores without conscience who are accountable only to their shareholders and have no responsibility for the safety of their products or to their users.

The basic problem is the capitalistic economic system based on the same greed, lack of accountability, and responsibility that characterizes the multinational corporations. In fact, these same large corporate dynasties purchase the services of politicians through their large political contributions. The politicians in turn insure that laws will be passed that favors the corporations rather than their citizens

DEMOCKERY accurately defines what a democracy really is: special interest groups rather than people controlling the destiny of nations and their citizens.

III. Creating Order from Disorder

All engineering problems are solved by first defining the problem. This same method must be used in civilization engineering. Since the basic problem is the irresponsible, greed based capitalistic economic system and the nations whose governments are based on capitalism, this present system must be examined as to its effects on the finite natural resources of planet earth. An examination of the United States capitalistic system can be summed up very simply. Corporations and their control of all aspects of US political life are only interested in US citizens as the consumers of their many useless and dangerous products. The once free media is now a corporate controlled entity that insures that their advertiser's products will be shown in the most favorable light possible. This is why pharmaceutical ads show fluttering moths and butterflies, smiling people and happy children before they announce the bad possible side effects of their drugs.

IV. The Solution:

"Standards to Overthrow Demockeries." This is the only purpose for VOSI.

See www.voicesofsafety.com ... "Slip/Fall Standards", "Public Safety" "Public Health" and "Environment" to learn how our research based standards have the power to overthrow the present economic system and substitute HUMANISTIC Capitalism: A free enterprise system that requires both governments and corporations to be accountable and responsible for their actions at all times

The oversight required to insure the success of this new paradigm requires the vigilance of citizens of all sovereign nations. The present US congressional oversight committees should be renamed "overlook committees" since they never see a damn thing wrong with this government's many abuses; especially its bloated overfed, overpaid military that uses chemtrails to poison the air of US citizens and depleted uranium against not only sovereign nations but our own servicemen.... We stink!!!

This has been the Achilles' heel in America's experiment to be a democratic republic instead of its present fascist state. America's citizens are as greedy and indifferent as their corporate controlled government.

V. The FART Equation

F – (A + R) = T... F = Freedom, A = Accountability, R = Responsibility, T = Tyranny.

"Freedom without Accountability and Responsibility equals Tyranny"

As an engineer, I use formulas in my product engineering designs. I believe the preceding equation is the main equation to use whenever applying the principles of civilization engineering to reversing our present headlong rush towards Armageddon.

All readers of this proposal for beginning the use of civilization engineering as a replacement for the present military, corporate, government controlled worldwide tyrannies should contact dcmeserlian@voicesofsafety.com to give your opinions on this proposed method for a permanent solution to the world's problems.

A major problem that will be addressed in Part 3 is the exponentially exploding world population, and its effect on earth's limited natural resources and the capitalistic economic system that supports unlimited growth in both the number of citizens and their glutinous demands for more and more. See Civilization Part 2, "Domestic Terrorism... the Required Response to Tyranny" and "A Test of Domestic Terrorism" (www.voicesofsafety.com....) "About VOSI".... last sentence "The Path to Peace" and "Civilization Engineering" Parts 1 & 2 and "A Test of Domestic Terrorism".

Hopefully, Civilization Engineering, and its purpose of allowing logic and the search for truth to replace the present system of the powerful multinational capitalistic corporations controlling the lives of people through government tyrants, will enable people to overthrow tyranny whenever and wherever it exists and install a new economic system based on free enterprise: Humanistic Capitalism (www.voicesofsafety.com ... "About VOSI" ... "Standards to Overthrow Demockeries") S
