The Manchurian Candidate was the title of a 1959 novel and 1962 film starring Frank Sinatra. The definition of “Manchurian Candidate” is “One who has been brainwashed into performing actions (such as assassinations) upon receiving a special code word or phrase.” The January 2013 issue of The Sovereign, pg. 20, has an article titled “Columbine Massacre: (4/20/99) A US Military Operation” that states: “Strangely, the CIA, FBI, ATF, FEMA, DEA, NSA NATO, M16 and ranking, in-uniform US Military officials were all present at the Columbine scene. A large blue NATO van was even present along with NATO troops and equipment. NATO paramilitary units with blue armbands are observable in the news footage

Did Death Squads Slaughter American Children at Sandy Hook?

By: John Connor,
Human Resistance

Nothing stands between the Department of Homeland Security and the complete domination of Americans than a population that is heavily armed and capable of resistance. Undermining our 2nd Amendment rights against fabricated attacks, which can be arranged at will by those who control the covert operations of this nation. This must be understood to be the real threat that we confront, not bizarre incidents like this one, which, even if we were to take it as the press has been reporting it, could not have been prevented by gun control.

Those who study 9/11 are all too aware of the role of the Neo-Cons and the Israeli Mossad. The American lamestream press covers it up, and we do know that Congress is controlled by AIPAC. As Bill Casey, former CIA Director, observed, “Our disinformation program will be complete when everything the American public believes is false.” Sandy Hook is the latest example.

"The greatest danger in modern technology isn't that machines will begin to think like people, but that people will begin to think like machines."

—Author Unknown

"The immoral use of force is the source of man's political problems. Sadly, many religious groups, secular organizations, and psychopathic authoritarians endorse government initiated force to change the world. Even when the desired goals are well-intentioned—or especially when well-intentioned—the results are dismal. The good results sought never materialize. The new problems created require even more government force as a solution. The net result is institutionalizing government initiated violence and morally justifying it on humanitarian grounds."

—Congressman Ron Paul in his farewell speech to Congress on November 14th 2012.

"We are what we pretend to be, so we must be careful about what we pretend to be."

—Kurt Vonnegut in the introduction to his 1961 novel, Mother Night. Vonnegut, Jr. (1922 - 2007) was an American novelist who blended satire, black comedy, and science fiction.

Fun Facts

Are Friends Electric?

Is it possible for a person to behave like one of the mutants in the X-Men and actually disrupt electronic equipment with his or her mind? Impossible, right? Maybe not. The ability of the human mind (usually under duress) to cause electromagnetic interference and disrupt an electronic device by merely coming into proximity to it is referred to in para-psychological circles as "Street Lamp Interference" (SLI), because it describes the ability of a person to turn street lamps on and off simply by being in close proximity to them, as well as affecting other electrical equipment with their minds. SLI is almost always subconscious or semiconscious in nature, and it is usually triggered by a high level of stress or emotions. The human nervous system primarily "runs" on electrical signals—via sodium and potassium ions—and thus it creates a small electromagnetic field. When a person becomes "stressed out," their nerves fire like a machine gun, but the electromagnetic field this generates is usually not strong enough to have an effect on the external world. But for people with SLI, electrical energy seems to "escape" the body, thus creating a much stronger electromagnetic disturbance that ranges from "blowing" a streetlight, to blowing a fuse, and perhaps worse. SLI is thought to be completely harmless, but others claim that those who possess SLI abilities may even have ESP.

Caryn Wagner

Caryn Wagner is an unusually obese woman who currently serves as Under Secretary at the Office of Intelligence and Analysis in the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). As one of the Big Sisters who sit alongside Janet Napolitano, Wagner is a 30-year careerist in the field of military intelligence. Most of Wagner's career has been spent bouncing among positions in military intelligence to policy wonk positions on Capitol Hill. She has also spent a fair amount of time working for the private military contractors who comprise the shadow government. Wagner also appears to be a life-long member of the Democratic party, which probably played a major role in her appointment to the DHS by Obama. Wagner was in the news after lying to the American people about DHS not monitoring them on various Internet-based social networking sites. It later turned out that DHS did, in fact, monitor these sites. Moreover, DHS has been stockpiling weaponry to be deployed against the civilian populace in case of the outbreak of civil unrest, so Wagner seems to be playing a large role in planning a covert war against her fellow Americans.

from that day were "men in black" style spooks in the very first crowds gathering around the school." The student killers of 12 classmates, Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold, were in all probability "Manchurian Candidates" mind controlled by the US government to use assault weapons against both their classmates and themselves. The "Manchurian Candidate" must commit suicide in order to eliminate the source of evidence that would implicate the U.S. government. Columbine was the beginning of a fear based society that began to lock down its schools.

On 12/14/12 a similar massacre occurred in the Sandy Hook elementary school, in Newtown, Connecticut, where 20 first graders and 6 teachers were killed with an automatic weapon. A Google search of "Adam Lanza did not use an assault rifle, hand guns only" states: "NBC has been advised by federal and state authorities that no assault rifle was used in the shooting and in fact, they only recovered 4 hand guns from inside the school. ... Two hand guns were found with Adam Lanza's body. The coroner confirmed that multiple gunshot wounds, from an assault weapon, were found on the bodies. Eyewitnesses confirmed that there were two other shooters at the school. The car they found the assault weapon in was not that of Adam Lanza or his mother but belonged to Christopher A. Roda."

Page 7 of the January 2013 The Sovereign, "Obama Signs Another New Executive Order Expanding Homeland Security" has a cartoon that states: "In the last century governments murdered 250 million of their own citizens ... but first they had to confiscate their guns."

The first genocide of the last century was the Armenian massacre by the Turks in 1915. The Turks confiscated the Armenian's guns before the massacre. The US government has never reconized the Turkish massacre of the Armenians.

I believe the US government is using the school massacres as an excuse for confiscating the arms of Americans in order to prevent citizen opposition to government tyranny.

The "Minuteman" cartoon on the front cover shows the need for citizens to be armed in order to oppose tyranny. Although in 1776, a musket was equivalent to the same weapons of their enemy, automatic weapons will be required if civil war were to erupt in this nation.

I. Background

Historically, the governments of sovereign nations have been overthrown by their citizens whenever their rulers have been tyrants that have usurped their government office to oppress those they are supposed to serve. The election of 11/7/06 in the US, wherein the oppressive Republicans (Repulsive-cants!) were overthrown in both the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives, demonstrates the legal power of rebellion by the voters.

The problem of all elections is the failure of citizens to participate in the government after they have voted. This allows the government to violate their need to be both accountable for their actions and responsible to those they are supposed to serve.

America was founded after the citizens of England, living in the colonies, revolted against the tyrannical British government. Revolutions bring out the best in both the rebelling citizens and their leaders. The quotations of the Founding Fathers should be reviewed at www.voicesofsafety.com: "Famous & Not so Famous Quotations" to learn how the warnings of a tyrannical government have become true today. America is no longer a democratic republic but has morphed into the military based fascist governed empire of Amerika, a nation whose government will either change by the actions of its elected leaders or be forced to change by its citizens who will become "Domestic Terrorists" who will hopefully use non violent means to overthrow their oppressors.

No citizen should ever pledge allegiance to Amerika or Amerika's Chief Village Idiot. See www.voicesofsafety.com... "About VOSI"... Click on the last sentence... "The Path to Peace" and read "Pogo News" to learn that although Amerika's Chief Village Idiot has an IQ of 91, the lowest of any US president, he has lied and covered-up the true cause of the collapse of the twin towers 9/11/01; pre-planted explosives. See the proof at www.voicesofsafety.com: "The Path to Peace" and "Pogo News" 9/11/01 articles.

Conclusion: The nomination of Chuck Hagel by president Obama as US Secretary of Defense provides hope that the US can become independent of control by Israel with his statement:... "The Jewish lobby (in the US) intimidates a lot of people here and does some dumb things that aren't smart for Israel"... I'm not an Israel senator. I'm a United States senator. ... I support Israel but my first interest is I take an oath of office to the Constitution of the United States, not to a president, not to a party, and not to Israel." Hopefully, this will be the beginning of the end of the Zionist controlled military-industrial complex that has destroyed this nation and its constitution. Upholding the Second Amendment is the only power left in the hands of America's citizens who need to "be prepared" to overthrow government tyranny. S
